SWITZ CHALLENGE!

There is a revised challenge for meeting the Riley Hospital minimum fundraising goal. Since the prospect of Rising Sun male teachers in dresses was curling people's hair, Mr. K has agreed that if at least $1 is raised for every hair remaining on his head, then he will donate his hair to science. Estimates are that would require a minimum donation of $300 not including the vending donation. The bucket should be in the cafeteria through lunch today. Encourage friends and family to donate at the game tonight also to beat Switzerland County and to find out what curls Mr. K's hair. Special thanks to Mr. K for this hair fundraising experience.

If students raise at least $300 for Riley by Friday. Several male teachers have agreed to dress like Switzerland County men for a day - i.e. wear a dress.

We are donating the previous week's vending sales toward the Switzerland County Riley Hospital competition fundraiser in the amount of $278.80. This does not count toward the $300 student fundraising goal.

Switzerland County High School has issued a challenge to Rising Sun High School to see which school can raise the most money this week for the Riley Hospital for Children. The Pacers invited us down to where the sun don't shine where they say our chances of winning this competition will be like a little ray of pitch black. At least that is how Mr. Smith heard the challenge, although he may have imagined some of it.

Riley Hospital provides medical care to children regardless of their family's ability to pay. There will be a red bucket for donations in the cafeteria through lunch on Friday. We will also donate this week's vending machine sales to the cause. Furthermore, Shiner fans will also be able to donate at the game at Switzerland County on Friday. All of this will count toward our school's total. Results will be announced at half time of the varsity game, and the winning school will receive a Riley trophy.

RSHS–DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS(Continued) – Friday, Dec. 8, 2017

Look for the Riley Children's Hospital bucket in the cafeteria and donate as generously as you can. Encourage other fans to place donations in the Shiner bucket at the game at Switzerland County on Friday.

Do it for the children. Do it to watch another Swiss miss. Do it to neutralize the Swiss. Do it to make a deposit in the Swiss bank account that will get their interest. Do it to make the Swiss feel the Bern of Rising Sun. Do it to hear the Swiss alpinism their loss. Do it to watch the Swiss fold like a cheap knife. Do it to claim the Swiss stake in this competition.
