SHINER SPORTS UPDATE

The Lady Shiner softball team defeated Shawe 28-0 last night. Congratulations to Sydney Pitts on pitching a perfect game against the Hilltoppers! The team will travel to Lawrenceburg today and South Decatur tomorrow. Today's game will be a 5 PM start with JV innings to follow the varsity game, and tomorrow's game will be a 10 AM start. The first game will be varsity, and the second game will be JV.

The Shiner golfers defeated Oldenburg yesterday evening on the 5th man tiebreaker score. The teams tied 168-168, but Rising Sun's 5th score bested the Twisters. Sam Markand and Brent Turner were low for RS with 39s. The team will play at Hillcrest Country Club in Batesville on Tuesday for a match with Oldenburg and North Decatur.

The boys finished 8th and the girls finished 9th last night at the South Dearborn Invitational track meet. Congratulations to Riley Chipman on winning the girls shot put. The team will host Milan and South Ripley on Tuesday at 5 PM.

Good luck to the Shiner baseball team as they travel to South Decatur for a double header tomorrow morning at 10 AM. Reminder that the JV game scheduled for this evening at Jac-Cen-Del has been cancelled.

BLOOD DRIVE COMPETITION RESULTS Results of the spring blood drive class competition are: 4th place sophomores, 3rd place juniors, and seniors edged out freshmen for first by two-tenths of a percent allowing for class size. Class competition standings are currently 4th place sophomores with 10 points, 3rd place juniors with 11 points, 2nd place seniors with 13 points, and 1st place freshmen with 16 points. Thanks to everyone who helped make the drive successful.
