

Parent Meetings

We ask that parents call in advance for meetings with principals and teachers. The principals and/or teachers may not be available at a moment's notice. By scheduling an appointment, the principal and/or teachers can make plans to give you the necessary time to discuss your student or problem. Thank you for your understanding.